

Nathan Hartfil

nhartfil@ccsdetroit.edu
810-830-8710
https://nhartfil0.wixsite.com/nathan

Objective and Summary

Entering the animation field though means by following two paths. The path of the freelance were work can be spare but, freedom to make the content chosen, or the path of industry. We're things will be easier with an established pipeline, though there will not be any control over. By persueing ether of these, the objective of being able to work in the industry will be completed no mattter the position within its industry. Although the goal will be wanting to work as the animator portion of the industry, it will also be in interest to work as the storyboard or character artist.

Education

Mott Community College.

Flint, Michigan, started in 2019, and transferred in 2022 to the College for Creative Studies

College for Creative Studies

Detroit, Michigan, Start date: September 2022, Graduation date: May 2026, degree for Bachelor of Fine Arts, Major in Entertainment Arts; Animation

Experiance

Summer Job 1: Imlay City, Michigan, Speedway's Cafe specialist 2019-2022

This line of work required working in the gas station store in the corner next to the high way. This job required learning how to cook and prep food and baking goods. Serving that food to the customer through order slips after payment at the register while keeps hot carts, baked good, and food stocked on the floor and in the cafe.

Summer Job 2 : Imlay City, Michigan, Conagra Brands topper floater 2023- to current

In this job, working on the floor of the pickle factory, ether topping off pickle jars, Manuel labor, and ensuring the quality of pickle jars, this job involved a lot wearing a lot of hats with each job being different or staying on one job for a long while.

Skills

Adobe Premiere Pro, Adobe After Effects, Photoshop, Toon Boom Harmony, Traditional 2D Art, Traditional 2D animation, Stop Motion Animation, Experimental Animation, Adobe Audition, Dragon frame,